Where i see him last period

You light me up inside like the fourth of july .. Newton's fourth law: every action has an equal and opposite satisfaction.. Me and kaya were obviously a lot cooler than you in fourth grade . Yay i see him last period.

k but i been playing this whole time, lowkey in feelings and the last thing im tryna do is blow anybodys high .. So much shit going on the last few days that i almost forgot i have tickets to see relient k on friday night. so stoked!. shit my bad, thought i did! .

i'm definitely going to do that. i think i'll just enjoy the single life a little longer..... Hmmm i wonder why esthers sister comes in....can't wait for the return of . i like the middle or asymmetrical.. that's what i was thinking about doin if my hair not where i want it to be when i take this out. lol, i didn't mind her til they all got separated and she was all thinking she could live without daryl & be on her own. like no.. This whole time i cried thinking she died, then she pops up alive at the end. these shows play with my emotions.
